1. Introduction

J D T Islam College of Physiotherapy was established in the year 2005 as a direct centre of university of Calicut as per the memorandum of understanding (MOU) to conduct Bachelor of Physiotherapy programme. In the year 2010-2011 after the University of Health Sciences (KUHS) was established college has been detached from University of Calicut and started functioning as a self financing college affiliated to Kerala University of Health Sciences (KUHS) under JDT Islam Management with kind sanction of the government.

JDT Islam College of Physiotherapy started a Physiotherapy Outpatient clinic and Rehabilitation center associated with the college in the year 2012. It is a well equipped clinic, focuses on patient's day to day functioning and enhancing their quality of life. Our trained physiotherapist's and rehabilitation experts have formulated a unique programme for recovery, health and wellness to fit patient's individual needs.

The college is attached to Iqraa International Hospital and Research Center. It's a leading healthcare provider in Calicut, equipped with state-of-the-art facilities to deliver the best of services and thereby fulfilling its commitment to the society. This is a 430-bed hospital, with the expertise of senior consultants, high-quality nursing staff, up to date diagnostic facilities and a committed management has taken giant leaps in its growth to a multi-specialty centre of excellence. Our laboratory was awarded the prestigious accreditation of NABL in 2012 and we are still maintaining the certification. The institution is also accredited by NABH and National neonatology forum. Iqraa has 11 community hospitals and community clinics in Kozhikode, Malappuram, Wayanad and Idukki districts of Kerala. Through these centres we could make specialty treatment services available for the poor and needy in the backward areas.
